

Dr. Tim ThabeChairman of the Management Board, Co-Founder and CEO (Chief Executive Officer)

Dr. Tim Thabe is creditshelf's Chief Executive Officer, Chairman of the Management Board and co-founded the company in 2014. Prior to founding creditshelf, he served as COO of UBS' International Corporate and Institutional Clients Business. He has more than 10 years of credit risk experience as a senior credit officer and rating consultant for UBS and Goldman Sachs. Tim holds an Executive MBA from Kellogg-WHU, is a CFA Charterholder, and has a PhD in Finance from the University of Mannheim on the valuation of credit risk.

Dr. Daniel BartschManagement Board Member, Co-Founder and CFO (Chief Financial Officer)

Dr. Daniel Bartsch co-founded creditshelf in 2014 and is the Chief Financial Officer as well as Management Board member. He has more than 15 years of experience in the international consulting and banking sector. Before founding creditshelf, Daniel worked as a project manager and management consultant at Kienbaum Consultants International and as a project manager and senior consultant at Bain & Company. Afterwards, he held various positions at UBS, including senior management positions in Zurich and Singapore. Daniel earned his degree in business administration from the University of Mannheim and his PhD from the University of Düsseldorf.