

DR. TIM THABE

Co-founder, CEO, and management board chairman

Prior to co-founding creditshelf, Dr. Tim Thabe worked at Goldman Sachs in London as Credit Risk Officer and Rating Advisor. At UBS in Zurich, he held various positions in the credit sector, including COO of the International Corporate and Institutional Clients Business. He has more than 10 years of credit risk experience, an Executive MBA from Kellogg-WHU, is CFA charterholder and completed a PhD focusing on credit rating at the University of Mannheim.

DR. DANIEL BARTSCH

Co-founder, CFO and management board member

Daniel has 15 years of international consulting and banking experience. Prior to co-founding creditshelf, he held a senior executive position at UBS, managing the institutional distribution of bond and equity products. Professional assignments took him to Zurich and Singapore. He graduated from the University of Mannheim with a degree in business administration and completed his PhD on a capital market research topic at the University of Düsseldorf.